SINGLES – Hanging onto to the top spot, Eminem's Lose Yourself enjoys it's 6th week at #1. With the movie 8 Mile due out this week, this is unlikely to change any time soon. Delta Goodrem hangs on at #2 and is currently preparing for her assault on the UK charts with a promo tour to coincide with her musical performance on neighbours over there. Kelly Rowland steals one more spot on the charts, moving to #3 with her debut solo effort and swapping places with the Ketchup Song. This is Las Ketchup's lowest position to date since entering the ARIA charts back in October 2002. Shaggy produces yet another Top 5 single (his fifth) with Hey Sexy Lady earning a bullet in jumping from #9 to #5. Another big mover this week is Missy Elliot with Work It moving from #16 to #8, her highest ARIA single chart position to date. Missy's previous single, 4 My People earned the R&B star her first Top 20 single, Work It going one better and entering the Top 10.

ALBUMS - No new album entries in the Top 100 this week and very little movement in the Top 10 as positions 1 through 4 remain the same as last week. The first big mover on the chart is the Music Live From The Panel 3 - The Latest Collection, jumping 4 places to #5 and recording it's highest position on the chart to date. This has been the most successful 'music from the panel' collection by far. The first in the series Music Live From The Panel, peaked at #15 back in December 1999 while Volume 2, More Music Live From The Panel peaked at #10 about a year later (November 2000). On the back of her recent Grammy nomination and some local touring, Norah Jones backs up her worldwide chart success here in Australia with her first foray into the ARIA Top 10, jumping a massive 12 places to #8. Also this week, John Farnham re-enters the Top 10 for the second and possibly not 'the last' time, jumping an impressive nine places to round out the Top 10.

There were no new entries in the Top 100 singles chart this week.....hang on for next week with new releases from Holly Valance, Shakira, Jay Z feat. Beyonce Knowles, Samantha Mumba, Daniel Beddingfield, Enrique Iglesias, Alicia Keys and Jennifer Love Hewitt, sure to make for some 'chartifacts' action.
